

Listening Skills in a Diverse World

Our introductory course is running in the Spring of 2022.

In-person course: Thursday evenings (10 sessions)

Venue: BCPC, 1 Trim Bridge, Bath, BA1 1HD

Times: 6.00pm – 9.00pm

Dates: 03 March – 12 May (excluding 21 April, Easter break)

Online course: Tuesday evenings (10 sessions)

Venue: Online via Zoom

Times: 6.15pm – 9.15pm

Dates: 26 April – 05 July (excluding 31 May, Half Term break)

Fees: The Listening Skills course costs £295.00. Places will be allocated on a first come, first served basis.

To apply: Please download and complete the application form available on the website and send this to admin@bcpc.org.uk enclosing a covering letter saying why you would like to do this course.

If you are offered a place and accept it, payment will be requested by bank transfer (bank details will be provided by the office) or can be made by cheque.

Your acceptance of a place on this course is a contractual commitment to pay the full fee and refunds are not permitted if for any reason you do not complete the course.

Course information

This course is designed to provide an introduction to BCPC's experiential teaching style and core values for people considering applying for our Foundation Certificate. This course might also help those considering a career change to a people-related job.

Course content

- Exploring cultural difference and sense of belonging
- Developing listening skills with difference in mind
- Using the 'core conditions' set out by Carl Rogers in listening work
- Learning how to give and receive feedback
- Cultivating an awareness of 'emotional process'
- Developing an ability to 'be in the present'

Each session will include a seminar, skills practice and an open group discussion.

Places are limited, so apply early to secure your place